

I believe that there is more to the situation with Dan Rather than meets the eye. Please investigate this situation. Something has got to be done about these new organizations saying anything they please with no repercussions. Please protect our airwaves.